New Jersey Author Jane Kelly Elected to President of the Delaware Valley Chapter of Sisters in Crime

January 8, 2018, Medford, NJ—Plexus Publishing, Inc. author, Jane Kelly, has been elected president of the Delaware Valley Chapter of Sisters in Crime, an organization offering support to mystery authors and enthusiasts world-wide.

Sisters in Crime was founded by Sara Paretsky in 1986. The Delaware Valley Chapter was created a few years later by authors Lisa Scottoline, Elena Santangelo, Caroline Todd, Donna Huston Murray, and the late Robin Hathaway, as well as avid mystery readers Gretchen Hall and Ruth Sheets.

Kelly is the author of the Meg Daniels series—mysteries with a humorous twist and Jersey Shore settings—Killing Time in Ocean City, Cape Mayhem, Wrong Beach Island, and Missing You in Atlantic City (which was the winner of the silver medal from the Independent Publisher Book Award for mid-Atlantic regional fiction in 2015). In addition, she has published several titles exclusive to the Kindle platform.

A member of the New York Chapter of Mystery Writers of America, Kelly works on the library committee for Pennsylvania and South Jersey moderating author panels throughout the region.
